

Door County Home Builders Association Education Award Program

2021 Door County Home Builders Association Education Award Information

The Door County Home Builders Association (DCHBA) is offering the following education award for 2021:

One (1) $1,000 education award to be awarded to a student attending a Door County high school.

The following qualifications must be met in order to be considered.

The applicant must:

- be a member of the 2021 graduating class from any Door County high school
- have a cumulative high school GPA of at least 2.5 (confirmation must be provided)
- be pursuing a course of study in the home building industry or related field (carpentry, HVAC, electrical, masonry, flooring, architecture etc.) at a technical college or accredited university

Additional information

- The one-time award will be paid directly to the technical school or university at the beginning of the second semester of enrollment. Proof of enrollment will be required (submission of tuition bill).
- The application and the answer to the essay questions must be received by the DCHBA by 5 PM CT. May 1, 2021.
- The winner(s) will be acknowledged at a future DCHBA General Membership meeting.
- The award will be based on academic achievement and potential, character, leadership, social awareness, extracurricular activities, and career goals.
- Applications will be evaluated by the DCHBA education award committee.
- Qualified applicants may be submitted to the Wisconsin Builders Foundation for a matching award.
