

Door County Home Builders Association Education Award Program

2022 Door County Home Builders Association Education Award Information

The Door County Home Builders Association (DCHBA) is offering the following education award for 2022:

One (1) $1,000 education award to be awarded to a student attending a Door County high school.

The following qualifications must be met in order to be considered.

The applicant must:

- be a member of the 2022 graduating class from any Door County high school
- have a cumulative high school GPA of at least 2.5 (confirmation must be provided)
- be pursuing an educational program at a trade school, technical college or accredited university, which in the opinion of the Award Committee, is related to the home construction industry or related field (carpentry, HVAC, electrical, masonry, flooring, architecture etc.)

Additional information

- The one-time award will be paid directly to the trade school, technical school or university at the beginning of the second semester of enrollment. Proof of enrollment will be required (submission of tuition bill).
- The application and the answer to the essay questions must be received by the DCHBA by 5 PM CT May 1, 2022.
- Applications will be evaluated by the DCHBA education award committee.
- The winner(s) will be acknowledged at a future DCHBA General Membership meeting.
- The award will be based on academic achievement and potential, character, leadership, social awareness, extracurricular activities, career goals, and essay question answers.
- Qualified applicants may be submitted to the Wisconsin Builders Foundation for a matching award.

Please submit the completed application and essay question answers to:
