2023 Door County Home Builders Association Education Award Information

The purpose of this award is to develop a construction related workforce in Door County, which is part of the mission of the Door County Home Builders Association (DCHBA).

The DCHBA is offering the following education award for 2023:

One (1) $1,000 education award for a student attending a Door County high school.

The following qualifications must be met to be considered.

The applicant must:

- be a member of the 2023 graduating class from any Door County high school.
- have a cumulative high school GPA of at least 2.5 (confirmation must be provided).
- be pursuing an educational program at a trade school, technical college, or accredited university, which in the opinion of the Award Committee, is related to the home construction industry or related field (carpentry, HVAC, electrical, masonry, flooring, heavy equipment, landscaping, interior design, architecture, plumbing etc.).

Additional information

- The one-time award will be paid directly to the trade school, technical school, or university at the beginning of the second semester of enrollment. Proof of enrollment will be required (submission of tuition bill).
- The application and the answer to the essay questions must be received by the DCHBA by 5 PM CT April 21, 2023.
- Applications will be evaluated by the DCHBA education award committee.
- The award winner(s) will be acknowledged at a future DCHBA General Membership meeting.
- The award will be based on academic achievement and potential, character, leadership, social awareness, extracurricular activities, career goals, and essay question answers.
- Qualified applicants may be submitted to the Wisconsin Builders Foundation for a matching award.
